THE UNION SOCIETY,
CAMBRIDGE.

July 2. 1907

Dear Professor Goldzihen,

As we are spending the summer in England and only returning to Hungary towards the end of August I am writing to ask you whether you do not think it would be advisable for me to start work on your lectures during the summer? Or would you prefer to wait until my return?

Our address from now till Aug. 25. will be 1 -

Sunnyside
Harcourt Road
Pokesdown

N^o. Bournemouth.

I had really no opportunity of calling on your friends here. as I was so awfully tied down with work. I must reserve that for some future occasion.

We can never forget the kindness shown us by Professor and Mrs. Margoliouth, the latter of whom my wife called our "guardian angel" at Oxford. She certainly was kindness itself and often went out of her way to do us a service.

The weather here has been dreadful and has completely spoiled the social side of our stay at my old University.

The undergraduates are beginning to come up again for the long Vacation Term which is a special feature of this University. Meanwhile Oxford has been revelling in the glories of her Pageant.

Hoping to hear from you, with kind regards,

I remain

Yours sincerely
